Upcoming Rehabilitation Loan Program Technical Assistance and Feedback Sessions

What: Rehabilitation Loan Program Technical Assistance and Feedback

Who should attend: At least one person per Rehabilitation Loan Program lender should participate in a session to learn about program requirements, and provide feedback related to program implementation.

Why: Minnesota Housing introduced the restructured Rehabilitation Loan Program to its lenders six months ago. During this time, lenders have had an opportunity to process loans and formulate ideas on the restructured program. Minnesota Housing is interested in feedback lenders may have about the program. Rehabilitation Loan Program lenders are invited to come to a general technical assistance session where they can ask questions about the Rehabilitation Loan Program or the Emergency and Accessibility Loan Program.

Agenda:

Technical Assistance

- Address Common Challenges
- Review Program Changes

Feedback

- Language used in the Minnesota Housing Single-Family Rehabilitation Standard
- Services included with the Lender Servicing Fee
- Fall-through Loan Payment Policy
- Streamlined State Historic Preservation Office (SHPO) Review
- Future technical assistance needs
